

Louisville Journal.

Democratic Nominations.
FOR PRESIDENT,
HORATIO SEYMOUR,
OF NEW YORK.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
FRANCIS P. BLAIR, JR.,
OF MARYLAND.
FOR CONGRESS,
HON. BOYD WINCHESTER,
OF JEFFERSON.

Democratic Electors.

FOR THE STATE OF LARUE,
COL. FRANK WOLFGANG OF CANTON,
FOR THE STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COL. JAMES D. COOPER.

DEMOCRATIC ELECTORS.

FOR THE STATE OF LARUE,
COL. FRANK WOLFGANG OF CANTON,
FOR THE STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COL. JAMES D. COOPER.

Kentucky News.

The Friends Association of the Anti-Slavery Club convened in Frankfort yesterday.

Mr. W. G. Godfrey has secured his connection with the Lexington Advertiser.

A large crowd of people, for whom no accommodations at Lexington on the night of September 1st.

A late day tournament came off Saturday at Frankfort, and proved to be a successful affair.

The Covington and Newport races railroad carry $100 per passenger per day over the entire bridge.

The Louisville and the Ohio River steamboat company was arrested last Thursday charged with having received a sum of money from the rebels, amounting to about a thousand dollars, and was compelled to pay it back.

A large number of rebels, who had been captured at Newbern, were released last evening.

The Louisville and the Ohio River steamboat company was arrested last Friday morning.

A boy ten years of age went through a crowded street car yesterday, and collecting ten cents from the passengers, made off with his newly won gains.

The following boat of S. S. was destroyed by fire at Frankfort, and sank in the river.

A workman threw a lighted match on the floor which saved the crew and herself the loss.

The Covington and Newport races railroad carry $100 per passenger per day over the entire bridge.

Southern News.

London, England, is growing rapidly.

Vigilante weather keeps unusually cool for the season.

Our armed and one-legged Georgians are exempt from taxation.

The Legislature of South Carolina passed a new law.

It is said that there was a heavy frost at Helena, Arkansas, last week.

Vigilantes are directing their attention to the men of grammar.

A recent Texas law is said to be threatening schoolmen, etc., in Texas county, Mo.

The Legislature of North Carolina recently passed a bill.

Mr. Ray, living near Wilmington, N.C., was murdered by his former husband a few days since.

The estate of Mr. Lee, Archibald, who died in the South recently, is estimated to be worth $100,000.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

The water of a creek runs into the home of a negro woman at Bristol, Va., recently and it injured her to death.

Ward, a prominent man of Louisville, who accidentally shot himself in the head while trying to snap a pistol, in Pike county, Mo., recently.

A telegraph from Marion via Greenup to Louisville, Kentucky, will come in open.

The news was handed over the counter of the cotton crop in the vicinity of Greenup, etc.

The Alabama miners are highly indignant that their chance to vote for President is "lost."

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

CHARTER CONVENTION.
Regular Meeting Last Night.
The Police Department.
HEAVY DISCUSSION.

A quorum of delegates appeared in the Chamber last evening, and the Convention was called to order by President Morris at 8 o'clock.

The discussion of the journal of the last meeting was dispensed with.

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

The first business in order being the report concerning the police force of the city, it was taken up seriatim.

Mr. Hixson said he should certainly favor the eligibility of young men. The army makes no distinction between soldiers as young as eighteen. Why not take into the police force young men of twenty-one who are pert and vigorous and capable?

Mr. Hixson moved to strike out 21 and insert 18.

Mr. Bowser hoped the gentleman would withdraw the amendment. A man is as eligible at 21 as 22. He would rather have the vote taken on the original or his own motion.

Mr. Hixson withdrew his amendment. Mr. Herbert ventured the remark that it was a mistake that the most experienced men were not the best police.

Mr. Bowser: "We do not want a man who would know the ropes too well."

The motion to strike out 21 and insert 18 was voted to a voice, and lost by 9 to 8. The motion to strike out "shall be a regular of Louisville five years" was also lost.

Mr. Baird moved to insert three instead of five years. Adopted. He also moved to strike out "English language" and insert "and vernacular tongue," which was lost, and the original amendment was adopted.

On motion, the further consideration of section 3 was postponed until the next meeting. Section 4 was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Bowser: "I am in favor of the government being in session, some evenings ago, the City Treasurer happened to come along. He was asked the difference in the cost of the existing and proposed systems, and when he was told the minimum difference was $100,000, Mr. Baird thought that fact a sufficient argument for a change in the system. He had heard others estimate the disparity as being $100,000."

Mr. Bowser said he had no idea that the difference was half of $100,000. He maintained that the Mayor should be held responsible for the peace and good order of the city, and he was to suppress a mob or preserve the peace of the city. As to the expense of the present organization, he declared:

"The Mayor is to be held responsible for the peace and good order of the city, and we should give him command of the police. He thought this right and proper, and on that account he favored the section as proposed."

Mr. Baird said he had made no estimate himself, but he had obtained from other parties their information on that point.

Mr. Bowser: "The section as proposed in the section was adopted, and when the report was postponed until the next meeting, the section was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

John Reed was put in custody for sixteen hours yesterday for carrying concealed weapons.

Break.

Bridget Riley, Chas. Leeb, Chas. E. Hoffman, Jas. Maloney, Joseph Dugan, Philip Henry, Jeanie Johnson, Jas. Scott and Frank Bryan, were all arrested yesterday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Main Street Cars.

The Twelfth street cars have been taken off the Main and Market route along the street as far west as the Jefferson street and the Broadway line will soon run to the Portland avenue. The Jefferson street and the Broadway line will soon run to the same point.

Assassination.

George S. Smith, yesterday arrived and put in the West End saloons charged with drunkenness and abusing his family. A paper of arsenic was found in his pocket, which it is supposed he intended to poison his wife, and perhaps himself and others.

Highway Robbery.

It seems that the thieves and rogues who infest New Albany are varying the mode of highway robbery, committing and thieving of all sorts by a little high-way robbery. On Saturday night about eleven o'clock, a young man named Watson, of the 10th street on the Broad Road about one and a half miles from New Albany, by two men, everything of value taken from him, and he left lying insensible upon the ground. He was very much frightened, but thought a bullet of blood had been thrown over his head and allowed to run down over his shoulders and chest. When he recovered sufficiently he managed to get to New Albany where he was dressed. There was no clue to the person or persons of the deed. On Monday night, as Mrs. Chas. Miner, who lives on Cherry street, New Albany, was on her way home, was met by a bunch of robbers who jumped from behind an embankment, and rushed to the ground, where his pockets were rifled of a pocket-book and memorandum. The authorities on the spot will have to resort to some very strenuous measures to suppress these high-handed proceedings.

On Fifth street between Market and Main streets, one of our Hebrew citizens, Mr. Forrest, keeps a hotel on the European plan, i. e., not a lunch on the hour of 10 A.M. He is a lucky-gobbler who might be the lucky possessor of a ten-cent sandwich, or even a nickel, wherewith to purchase an entire sandwich. He has been in the habit of sprouting on the human feelings of our countrymen by investing them with a sandwich or nickel, or more, and thieving of all sorts by a little high-way robbery.

On Saturday morning to take his usual portion of the soup and beef set out the Union club, and, being unusually hungry, was the act of gorging his fourth plate, when he was seized by a dozen of his employer's enemies unawares and, like a dog, was torn to pieces.

The customer became unusually excited at the demeanor of the negro waiter a few moments after, and was ready to jump at his employer's throat. The negro, however, upon whom complaint, but not knowing the name of his hungry adversary, let the scuffle slide.

Baseball.

The champion Union Club of Morrisania, New York, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, from Indianapolis, and will appear at the Louisville Hotel, the Union club, of Morrisania, New York, will take the field against the Louisville club this afternoon at Cedar Hill this afternoon at three o'clock.

The Louisville club will be hard at work in practice for this match, and will have their first game in the field in the Union. Bases will be drawn when both clubs will go into the famous champion's warm welcome in more respects than one.

Cedric Lee will be filled with our power to give encouragement to the Louisville, and we hope to see the ladies lend their smiles and presence to cheer our club to greater exertions.

He hopes, however, that application will give him a chance to make his debut, and that derive about, hosts and guests, upon the part of a certain class of rowdies who seem to like every large gathering of people to show off their taste and to tell strangers of all the laws of politeness and hospitality, will not be indulged in upon this occasion.

Heartless Outrage.

A Market Woman Assaulted on the Highway and Seriously Hurt.

Between three and four o'clock yesterday morning a woman was beaten a few miles west of the city and severely maimed with the produce of a small garden, was on her way, as usual, to town when her supplies, when she was about half a mile from the road, was attacked by three armed men. They struck three times with large knives, inflicting two ugly wounds—one on the hand and another on the shoulder. The first thrust of the knife was so deep that it did not penetrate the skin, but the second, when it was withdrawn, cut through the tendons, so that the hand was entirely severed from the arm.

The woman will commence at Cedar Hill at three o'clock this afternoon. As a great many of our people are anxious to see the champion's game, we hope to have the trial at the Park covered with our youth, beauty, and elegance.

Mr. Herbert said that it had at first seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old. He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from, and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Brannin hoped the appointment would not pass. Unless it is in the exceptional cases, men of 21 are too young to be as good as policemen. They have not the experience or the knowledge of what is right and wrong.

He is not in favor of the appointment of men under the age of twenty-four, but he is in favor of the appointment of men under the age of twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that there are great many able men at twenty-four.

He was of the opinion that any man, no matter how old, could keep a station-house; but that he could not do it.

Mr. Herbert said that he had at first

seemed to him that the idea was correct that a policeman is not as effective at twenty-four as at twenty-four years old.

He said, however, that he had surmised that there would be a great many competent and able men to select from,

and he did not think we ought to shut our eyes to the fact that